The party continues in Las Vegas for David Hasselhoff. The former “Baywatch” star, who celebrated his 59th birthday on Saturday at Encore Beach Club and Blush Boutique Nightclub, was spotted last night at Surrender Nightclub at Encore Las Vegas with girlfriend Hayley Roberts and friends.

“The Hoff” sported a flashy silver suit, drank sugar free Red Bulls, and spent time staring up at the stars from a daybed in the pool while cuddled up with his 31-year-old Welsh girlfriend. He later jumped up to the DJ booth to introduce Wynn Las Vegas resident DJs NERVO, the Australian-born twin sisters, deejays, songwriters and fashion models, Liv and Mim Nervo.

Also spotted at Surrender last night, Linda Hogan with son Nick Hogan and his fiance, Breana Tiesi. Linda left early after which Nick was seen loosening up considerably and partied on with Breana until 4 a.m.

Also in the house, Jason Terry of the NBA champions Dallas Mavericks, with a crew of 16 celebrating with Ciroq and magnums of PJ Rose champagne.

On Tuesday, Hasselhoff attended Donny & Marie’s show at Flamingo Las Vegas with Roberts. After the show, Hasselhoff and Roberts joined the famous brother-sister duo backstage for a meet and greet and photos.
